INTRODUCTION

Disability is defined as a lack of ability, to perform an activity in the manner considered normal for a human being. It is estimated that in India, 2% population (approx) suffers from one or other form of disability. Malnutrition, lack of hygiene and inadequacy/delay in Medical services, infectious diseases, accidents, etc. may cause impairment leading to disability; where services of such professionals along with medical & paramedical professionals are needed at different stage to prevent, manage disability or their rehabilitation.

DISABILITY HAS BEEN BROADLY GROUPED AS:

- (i) Locomotor disability
- (ii) Hearing impairment
- (iii) Mental retardation & mental illness
- (iv) Blindness or low vision
- (v) Multiple Disabilities

Although Government, NGOs and some civil society Institutions have been providing services to the persons with disabilities since long, but these efforts have gained momentum since 1970's, when the decade was marked by a new approach to disability with the concept of "Rights for Disabled Persons". The United Nations took the lead and issued declarations relating to Rights to the Disabled Persons (1975). The 1983-92 was declared as the "Decade of the Disabled Persons". This was followed by the "Asia and Pacific Decade of Disabled Persons" (1993-2002). The standard rules for the equalization of opportunities for persons with disabilities were adopted by the UN General Assembly in 1993.

In 1995, Indian Parliament introduced "Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act" 1995, is adopted by all the states and union territories. The act defines the responsibilities of the central and state Governments regard to the services to the persons with disabilities. It mandates affirmative action for ensuring useful life to disabled person and refers to the need for action on prevention of disability, provision of medical and other services to minimize the impact of impairment on account of diseases & accidents etc. It also refers to rehabilitation through education, vocational training, barrier free environments, assistive aids and other interventions.

Since 1970, Govt. of India has established several institutions to train professionals/manpower in the field of rehabilitation. There are four National Institutes viz, National Institute for the Orthopedically Handicapped, Kolkata, AYJ National Institute for the Hearing Handicapped, Mumbai, National Institute for the Mentally Handicapped, Secunderbad and three apex Institutes, viz, Swami Vivekanand National Institute of Rehabilitation Training and Research, Cuttack, Pt. Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Institute for the Physically Handicapped, New Delhi and National Institute for Empowerment of Persons with Multiple Disabilities, Chennai. These Institutes are conducting training programs at Certificate, Diploma, Degree and Postgraduate levels in their respective disciplines. The Institutes also carry out research; develop models of rehabilitation service, manpower development, and clinical & therapeutic service. They also have extensive outreach programs so that services are available in a decentralized manner. Over the years, the Institutes have trained thousands of professionals who are in their careers in the Country and abroad. In addition to above, the Ministry has also established Composite Regional Centers, District Disability Rehabilitation Centre, supporting to voluntary action programs and National Program for Rehabilitation of Persons with Disabilities under state sector scheme. For further information, Website <http://socialjustice.nic.in> may be visited.

1. TRAINING PROGRAMMES

The Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment supports manpower development in the field of rehabilitation through National Institutes, who are offering a number of courses for which entrance test is being conducted. Amongst them, some are in the area of

- (i) Physiotherapy
- (ii) Occupational Therapy
- (iii) Prosthetics & Orthotics

1.1 PHYSIOTHERAPY

Physiotherapy is an allied health profession, which emphasizes the use of physical agents in the management of diseases, prevention & rehabilitation of disabling conditions. Physiotherapy deals with problems particularly those associated with Neuromuscular, Musculo-skeletal and Cardio-vascular & Respiratory systems. The therapeutic methods are based essentially on movement, manual therapy and use of physical agents.

A Physiotherapist is trained to assess, plan and provide therapeutic services to the individual with sensory and motor deficit. After successful completion of the course, a student can seek placement as a physiotherapist in hospitals, rehabilitation centers, Physiotherapy clinics and as a faculty in the concerned subject etc. The avenues for higher studies & research are also there. The specialization in physiotherapy in the area of Orthopaedic, neurology, Paediatrics, sports, rehabilitation, chest physiotherapy & specialized techniques like manual therapy, electrotherapy etc. are also coming up.

1.2 OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY

Occupational Therapy aims to provide therapeutic and functional management to the disabling medical conditions (Physical and mental) so as to enable them to perform maximum possible function independently viz. daily living activities, play, performance at the work place through sensory integration therapy, work simulators, EMG-Biofeedback, therapeutic activities, etc. In occupational therapy, modified, adaptive/assistive & supportive devices are also developed and used to make the life more independent, productive and dignified.

As an indispensable member of a medical/rehabilitation team, this discipline; one find a wide scope in various hospitals, NGOs, Paediatrics Hospital & psychiatric centers, industrial setups, educational institutions, sports industries, homes for aged, reconstructive/plastic surgery and leprosy rehabilitation centers etc. The community based rehabilitation is another area where occupational therapy is being recognized as an important component.

A successful candidate has job opportunities as therapist, teaching faculty, researcher in Government & NGOs, self-employment, consultant/advisor in industrial & educational institutions etc. in the Country & abroad.

The avenues for higher studies in occupational therapy in the specialties like rehabilitation. Orthopaedics, Hand Rehabilitation, Developmental disabilities & neurology, psychiatry, sports etc. & research are also available.

1.3 PROSTHETICS & ORTHOTICS

Prosthesis is an artificial replacement or substitute for a loss part of a limb amputates due to congenital or acquired causes. The profession got its recognition more in early seventies in post war era. This was due to the sudden increase in number of war victims amputees requiring fitments of artificial limbs (Prosthesis).

Orthosis is a device applied over body to the individual to support, maintain or correct the deformity in a weakened part of body. It may also be applied with the additional objective to assist, allow or restrict movement of joint of body. Orthotics is the practice to design, fabricate, the orthosis.

After successful completion of the course, a student may get placement as a Prosthetist/Orthotist in Rehabilitation Centres, Hospitals, Trauma Centres, Multinational companies and Manufactures, Academic Institution and Self employment, in Government and non-government sector in the Country and abroad.

The avenues for higher studies & research in the area of Prosthetics and Orthotics are enormous.

2. INSTITUTES UNDER CET-2017
