I ADMISSION CRITERIA

Admissions

Our objective is to admit talented and motivated students from all over the world, who have an aptitude for media, high level of drive, ambition, commitment as well as an international outlook and mindset.

Academic Potential

In order to be eligible for the BA (Journalism and Mass Communication) Programme (Duration : Six Semesters), students must have completed their PUC / SYJC / 12th standard in any discipline. Only candidates who have achieved 60% and above in PUC / SYJC / 12th standard are eligible to apply for the BA (Journalism and Mass Communication) Programme. In case of OBC/ SC/ ST eligibility will be relaxed to the extent of 5%. However the final selection will be based on merit only.

Management Potential

We want candidates who will evolve and mature in ways that will empower them to take on higher levels of responsibilities across the world. We give your past achievements careful thought while assessing your potential to be future media professionals. Superior academic credentials and exceptional evidence of intellect in your professional life will definitely enhance your chances of gaining admission in CMS.

Personal Motivation & Maturity

We look for candidates who display high levels of maturity, a grounded sense of reality and an inclination towards reflection besides being ambitious, highly motivated and ethical.

Team Skills

We lay specific emphasis on working in multicultural groups with people from diverse professional backgrounds. We need to be unquestionably certain that candidates will share their knowledge with their fellow team members and contribute significantly to the learning environment at CMS and to society.
